As Northern Ontario's premier sports and entertainment facility, GFL Memorial Gardens is home to the Soo Greyhounds, serves as a multi-sporting complex, venue for entertainment, tradeshow, conferences and much more.

Owned and operated by the City of Sault Ste. Marie, GFL Memorial Gardens opened its doors in 2006. The Gardens spreads over one full block in Sault Ste. Marie's downtown district, with nearby shopping centers, hotels, restaurants and entertainment.

Since opening, the Gardens has hosted major concerts and special events including Elton John, KISS, Tragically Hip, Cirque du Soleil, NHL preseason game, Russel Peters, Grand Slam of Curling, CARHA World Hockey Championships, and Jerry Seinfeld; just to name a few!
